

SASGOG 10TH ANNUAL MEETING

San Diego Convention Center • May 5, 2022

SAN DIEGO

INVITATION

Welcome

Tony Ogburn, MD

I am delighted to welcome you to San Diego for the 2022 SASGOG 10th Annual Meeting! It's so exciting to be back together in person after having to cancel our meeting in 2020 and meeting virtually in 2021. The meeting is a fantastic opportunity to reconnect with friends and colleagues from across the country, participate in learning opportunities for professional and personal growth, and build new relationships. Our program committee, chaired by Dr. Makeba Williams, has developed an outstanding meeting based on the theme, "Reunited and It Feels So Good: The SASGOG Reunion".

We are fortunate to have Dr. Jennifer Villavicencio, the ACOG Lead for Equity Transformation, kick off the main meeting with the Dr. Ken Noller Lecture: Reclaiming Trust in an Age of Misinformation. We will then have a diverse panel of experts moderated by Dr. Kristen Matteson discussing how to reconnect with your scholarship. The panel will be followed by breakout sessions discussing specific areas of focus in scholarly activity including education, quality improvement and traditional clinical research. Breakouts will round out the morning session with topics on essential skills for the Academic Specialist.

The afternoon session will focus on innovations in Ob/Gyn starting off with a talk by Dr. Andrea Braden, an Academic Specialist and entrepreneur. We then will have breakout sessions with SASGOG members sharing innovations in clinical practice, quality improvement and education. The response to our call to members for innovations to share was phenomenal and I am excited to hear the great things we are doing! Our main meeting will wrap up with presentations of our award-winning abstracts and our Annual Business meeting.

We will then join CUCOG for our annual joint session entitled "Faculty Development and Career Advancement: Structural or Innate?". This session will provide ample opportunity for stimulating discussion with SASGOG members and Chairs, a highlight of our past in-person meetings. The day will close with a Joint SASGOG/CUCOG Reception and Poster Session with ample refreshments and opportunities to connect with old and new friends.

In addition to the main meeting, we have several ancillary activities taking place. You can start your day with Yoga in the Park led by Mireille Truong. Our Resident Reporters and Mentor/Mentee sessions will be taking place over breakfast. I would like to thank Hologic® for their continued unrestricted grant support of the Resident Reporter Program. Finally, if you are attending the ACOG ACSM please consider attending the SASGOG session on Saturday, May 7, 8:30 – 9:00AM entitled, What's New in 2022 – Our Annual Booster Shot: Clinical Updates.

Again, welcome to San Diego and I look forward to seeing everyone!

Tony Ogburn, MD
SASGOG President

KNOLLER LECTURER

DR. KEN NOLLER LECTURER

Reclaiming Trust in an Age of Misinformation

Jennifer Villavicencio,
MD, MPP, FACOG

Jennifer Villavicencio, MD, MPP, FACOG serves as the Lead for Equity Transformation at the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists. She is an expert in strategic communication and facilitation of socially complex subjects. She brings this expertise and her lived experiences as a Cuban American to bear in her clinical care and advocacy for reproductive justice-informed health policy, structural equity, and anti-racism. During her Complex Family Planning Fellowship at the University of Michigan, she researched effective physician communication strategies to shift hearts and minds for social change around abortion issues.

Dr. Villavicencio completed ob/gyn residency at Brown University. She received her MD from the University of Central Florida University of Miami and a BS in Neuroscience from the University of Miami. She holds a Masters of Public Policy from the Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy at the University of Michigan.
